

Neuroimaging Insights into Bipolar Disorder

School of Psychiatry researchers have used neuroimaging to study white matter integrity in patients with bipolar disorder. The findings, obtained using diffusion tensor imaging were published in Psychological Medicine. The collaborative study included lead author and Head of School, Professor Philip Mitchell and CHeBA's Leader of the Neuroimaging Group Associate Professor Wei Wen.

Read More

Participate in Research - World-First Memory Study

We are currently recruiting participants aged 60 to 85 with mild memory problems for the last phase of a world-first clinical trial investigating a new approach for improving memory. For more information please contact (02) 9382 8353.

Read More

Join Team CHeBA in the City 2 Surf

CHeBA's Co-Directors Professor Henry Brodaty and Professor Perinder Sachdev are once again running the City 2 Surf to promote positive ageing! Join them and walk, jog or run for better brain health.

All participants receive a CHeBA singlet.

Read More

T +61 (2) 9382 3816 F +61 (2) 9382 3774 W www.cheba.unsw.edu.au

Click Here to Unsubscribe

If you do not wish to receive emails in the future please unsubscribe by clicking the unsubscribe link provided.
The Privacy Policy Statements set out our policies on the management of personal information.
