Prof Sachdev is Scientia Professor of Neuropsychiatry, Co-Director of the Centre for Healthy Brain Ageing (CHeBA) in the School of Psychiatry, University of New South Wales in Sydney, Australia, and Clinical Director of the Neuropsychiatric Institute (NPI) at the Prince of Wales Hospital, Sydney. He is a former President of the International Neuropsychiatric Association and current President of the International College of Geriatric Psychoneuropharmacology.

In 2010, he was named NSW Scientist of the Year for Biomedical Sciences. In 2011, he was appointed Member of the Order of Australia (AM) for service to medical research in the field of neuropsychiatry, and to professional associations at a national and international level.

Organised by the Ageing and Neurodegeneration theme at NeuRA